The afternoon is yours to explore Waco your way! A free trolley will be available for those looking to explore downtown. Downtown Waco is a unique cultural district brimming with fun finds, from antiques and home decor to artisanal crafts and high-end boutiques. The star of downtown is certainly the Magnolia Silos property owned by Chip and Joanna Gaines. There's so much to see and do here, starting with Magnolia Market. This home goods shop is where you can find a variety of decor pieces in Joanna's signature style, including baskets, signage, knick knacks, and furniture. Some of the newest additions to the Magnolia family are the Shops at the Silos, six shops dedicated to specific styles and themes. There is the book and paper collection at Chapter One, men's goods at No. 16, and bath and body products at Vie Bien Aimee. Then there's women's clothing at Reverie, bags and other accessories at Tried and True, and kids items at Juniper & Crew. As you revel in the Magnolia atmosphere, be sure to grab a drink at Magnolia Press, a sweet treat at Silos Baking Co., and lunch at one of the food trucks! Other unique places downtown include The Findery, Common Grounds, Heritage Creamery, Laverty's Antiques and Furnishings, and Spice Village. To explore a little history, consider the Dr. Pepper Museum or the Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum. Our day will come to an end with dinner together at one of Waco's many fun restaurants followed by an evening to relax at the Holiday Inn Waco (or similar).
